How to Use the WebCease Pro Report

- The Pro Report Summary page provides at-a-glance information on the type and number of accounts identified in our search.
- The Pro Report Detail page shows all the accounts included in our search. A checkmark (✓) indicates an active account. A void symbol (⊘) indicates no active account. A question mark (?) indicates an existing account could not be determined. A star (★) indicates the account was provided for the search.
- The Digital Asset Account Information pages contain instructions on the different options for retrieval, closure or memorialization in accordance with the policies of each site.

Can WebCease Close Any Accounts or Retrieve Digital Assets?

WebCease will only identify the active accounts and instruct on the different options for retrieval, closure or memorialization in accordance with the policies of each site. We will not take any actions on behalf of the family, executor, representative or estate.

Digital Asset Account Information

Official Policy:

Except as otherwise explained below, mileage credit is not transferable and may not be combined among AAdvantage members, their estates, successors and assigns. Accrued mileage credit and award tickets do not constitute property of the member. Neither accrued mileage, nor award tickets, nor upgrades are transferable by the member (i) upon death, (ii) as part of a domestic relations matter, or (iii) otherwise by operation of law. However, American Airlines, in its sole discretion, may credit accrued mileage to persons specifically identified in court approved divorce decrees and wills upon receipt of documentation satisfactory to American Airlines and upon payment of any applicable fees.

Expert Tip:

Contact AAdvantage Customer Service to request transfer of mileage and have all required documentation available.

Other Important Information:

No fee for transfer of a mileage balance. If the AAdvantage account has no qualifying activity in any 18-month period, all miles in the account will expire.

Digital Asset Account Information

Official Policy:

Unfortunately, there may be a time when you come across the profile of a colleague, classmate, or loved one who has passed away. If this happens, we can close that person's account and remove their profile on your behalf.

To start this process, please answer some questions about the person who has passed away. The form can be completed and signed electronically via DocuSign here:

<https://www.docusign.net/MEMBER/PowerFormSigning.aspx?PowerFormId=91e28b6c-bc93-47ed-8d1e-1f81083529d6>

Expert Tip:

The following information is required on the form: name of the deceased person, link to their profile, email address of the deceased person, workplace of the deceased person work, link to an obituary or relevant news article, your name, your email address, your relationship to the deceased, any additional information, and your electronic or physical signature.

Other Important Information:

A submitted form will automatically be sent to LinkedIn for review. Upon verification, LinkedIn will delete the account and remove the profile from the site.

Digital Asset Account Information

Official Policy:

To protect the privacy of your loved one, it is our policy to honor the initial agreement that they made with us, even in the event of their passing. At the time of registration, all account holders agree to the Yahoo Terms (TOS). Pursuant to the TOS, neither the Yahoo account nor any of the content therein are transferable, even when the account owner is deceased. As a result, Yahoo cannot provide passwords or access to deceased users' accounts, including account content such as email.

Expert Tip:

Yahoo does have a process in place to request that your loved one's account be closed, billing and premium services suspended, and any contents permanently deleted for privacy. The following documentation is required: 1) A letter containing your request and stating the Yahoo ID of the deceased; 2) A copy of a document appointing the requesting party as the personal representative or executor of the estate of the deceased; and 3) A copy of the death certificate of the Yahoo account holder.

Other Important Information:

Send the information to Yahoo's Legal Department.
